

Night Attack

Angel City

Streets are empty and the parks are dark
And the shadows in the doorway seem to shout at me
It's after midnight and I'm walking alone
I'm hearing footsteps down every alley I see
Made it past the factories
Gotta get through the trees
Night opens up for me
I'm only half home, headed on the path

To a night attack
Night attack
Night attack
Night attack

Standing in a cold sweat, no escape
I wish I had an atom bomb, I'd even settle for a gun
Feel like a blind man running from a mad dog
Odds in his favor are a thousand to one
Something moved, someone's there
Night opens up to me
I'm only half home, headed on the path

To a night attack
Night attack
Night attack
Night attack

(Solo)

Night attack
Night attack
Night attack
Night attack

I'm only just past the factories
Gotta get through the trees
Night opens up for me
I'm only half home, headed on the path

To a night attack
Night attack
Night attack
It's a night attack

I'm only half home, headed on the path
To a night attack
I'm only half home, headed on the path
To a night attack
Night attack
Woh, look out
Night attack
Night attack
Night attack
