Out Of The Blue

(Brewster-Neeson-Brewster)

Are you still hanging out, still not making out doin' well without me you said you'd take it all and dared the axe to fall I guess you're never coming down babe

Baby, out of the blue
Baby, out of the blue

Are you still running free, still got your master key I thought you'd seen it all before you said you're satisfied, but you laid down and died
can you see it all coming true for you

Baby, out of the blue
Baby, out of the blue
Baby, out of the blue
Baby, out of the blue

I saw you yesterday, your covers blown away but you're still holding out for more you touch your pleasure throne and wait for someone to adore yo u

Baby, out of the blue
Baby, out of the blue

you're not the only one, just look what you've become there's a million more like you babe
