Border of Reality

I'm trying to think But I can't catch my thoughts Confusion is reigning my mind

The void in your word Should cause me to fear The coldness is getting near

Clear my eyes Let me see I'm going to lose my aim Show me the sense

The propecies are raining, down from the sky But answers are not to be found

The longing for something that we cannot find Uncovers our fatal disguise

Clear my eyes Let me see I'm going to lose my aim Show me the sense

Let me fall Let me dream - of beauty and truth -Let me feel Let me see - the border of reality

Now that we all have percieved our fate Reality lies and the lie lives in me Is it all over or will it go on I'm surewe have nothing to fear
