Liquid Angel

Once againthe pictures Disarray No more empty words That go astray Paralize I step into The stream Hoping all my lies Will follow me

I feel the dawn rise in me The light disappears I start to regret I can't breake these chains I die to live again

Ever so I try to turn arround Electrifying voices Tie me down My senses are erased I'm breathing in the flames The termination has begun I cannot break these chains

I feel the dawn rise in me The light disappears I start to regret I can't breake these chains I die to live again Angel Dust
