

Never Ending Game

Angel Du$t

It's in my head, it's in my head
Running around up there again
Stuck in my head, it's in my head
Running around

Did it again, under my skin
Twisting it in with a hidden grin
Up in my head, it's in my head
Running around

Dying to get you off my back
I'm looking up some new attack
Then suddenly stop and never say a word again

I can't feel a thing

Thinking of giving up again
Waiting to change the time again
Kicking the dead, kicking the dead
Running around

Seeing the sign I hadn't read
Crossing the line I've always met
Stuck in my head, it's in my head
Running around

Dying to get you off my back
I'm looking up some new attack
The sudden stop and never say a word again

I can't feel a thing
I can't feel a thing
I can't feel a thing
