

No Vacancy

Angel Du$t

Sitting around a fire that's been running out of time for a little while Want me to take my part, that's great
But you leave it too late

Overhear somebody say
Oh, I don't want to go
No vacancy on Earth pack your bags let's turn to another world
No vacancy on Earth turn your back let's go to another world
No vacancy on Earth

Tied to a dream of a simple memory, I can make it last
Kicking dust in the bin
Turn away to begin picking up the past
I thought I heard somebody laugh

I don't want to go
There's nowhere left to go
No vacancy on Earth pack your bags let's turn to another world
No vacancy on Earth turn your back let's go to another world
No vacancy on Earth pack your bags let's turn to another world

No one close, come away, let's go to another world anyway
Oh, I don't want to go
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh I don't want to go
Go!

No one close, come away, let's go to another world anyway
Let's go to another world
Go to another world

Yo, you know I tried angel dust
How was that
Wack
How'd you feel
Stupid
Like that shit was trying to kill me
