

Head Chef Freestyle

Angel Haze

I show my destiny, dawg
No one except for me, they just keep reaching and they cannot get to me, dawg
Niggas is flexin' me, bitches especially
I got the recipe, dawg
They cannot wreck for me, life just be testing me, you get the best of me, devil be pastoring
Destiny, destiny, destiny, destiny dawg

Seen it for myself, then I made the change to the stop of my soul let the hate be drained
Can't vulture, can't blame, let the things be things
They're walking on their own, them lamezy lamez
But damn, now I got a different story
Niggas jacking, gotta take inventory
Honestly, I might take some shit to Maury
Drop fire on niggas, like Baltimore
Lay low but I haven't made the big yet
Saw a future and it hasn't left my head yet
Who's eating? Tell 'em I'm the head chef
I keep shooting, like is that nigga dead yet?
Fuck with me baby boy, I'm a sure thing
A masterpiece, I'm 'bout to make the world change
Skirt off in a purple dragon like Aladdin
Take a niggas ship and I'm the captain
Now, I know who I'm destined to be
Block buzz, ain't nobody messing with me
What you need to get me now is a big amount
Who ever counted me, I couldn't count
I fought with demons, leeches and temptation
My greatness don't depend on validation
But I can't wait to raise the fucking rave
Like who the fuck gon' check me, I've been waiting
I might need some medication, 'cause I've been seeing bitches leevitating
Been running shit, I need to and go brace it
Weezy, weezy, weezy, dedication
Now, coming for the MVP, that's power, bitches gotta envy me
Twin tower, bitch I gotta hit these streets
Thank god, man you bitches better bend your knees, yeah

Destiny dawg, destiny, destiny, destiny dawg
Mess with me dawg, none of you niggas can mess with me dawg
Destiny, destiny, destiny (Yeah)
