

Good For Something

Angel Taylor

Still wear your t-shirt
The one you left behind
[?] don't judge me
They say that love is blind

You just left me hangin'
And I don't wanna fake it
Livin' a lie
My mood is finally changin'
[?] keep on fadin'
Just needed some time

Oh, man
I think I'm over you

You're not good for nothin'
But you're good for somethin' more
You're showin' me a way outta love
You're not good for nothin'
But you're good for somethin' more
And I won't get my hopes up no more

Hopes up

Still got your number
No use in using it now (no use in, no use in)
I wake up on Mondays
Those blues don't get me down no more

My mood is finally changin'
[?] keep on fadin'
Just needed some time

And, oh, man
I think I'm over you

You're not good for nothin'
But you're good for somethin' more
You're showin' me a way outta love
You're not good for nothin'
But you're good for somethin' more
And I won't get my hopes up no more

Won't get my hopes up
Won't get my hopes up on you
Won't get my hopes up on you

Am I over you?
What can I do?
Should I go out and just party,
And love on somebody?
Like all of these broken hearts do
Yeah-yeah
How can I love,
Someone who just,
Gets me hopes up just to let me down?

You're not good for nothin'
But you're good for somethin' more
You're showin' me a way outta love
You're not good for nothin'
But you're good for somethin' more
And I won't get my hopes up no more

I won't get my hopes up on you
I won't get my hopes up on you, no
I won't get my hopes up on you
On you, no, no
I won't get my hopes up on you
I won't get my hopes up on you, no
I won't get my hopes up

And, oh, man
I think I'm over you
