

Condemned

Angel Witch

I see your smile, I see your fears
I see your joy, you are my pain
You say you have come to see the sins
I say you've come to meet your soul
Too late for me
I'm trapped and bound and damned
Lost and found
Pushed back down into the ground...

Condemned

Too close too far
Too weak to reach you
The blood in my veins is flowing without you

So now that you're done I see you walk away
A big mistake to look into my eyes
Now you'll see me each time you close your eyes
A lifetime curse from now until you die

Too late for you
You're trapped and bound and damned
Your soul's been found and trapped into the ground with me...

Condemned

Too close too far
Too weak to reach you
The blood in my veins is flowing without you
