

Rendezvous With The Blade

Angel Witch

The executioner stands with his machine
They wanna see you sliced up ??????????????
????? no way now you can't redeem
Do you think that your death is a dream?

Guillotine
Guillotine
Guillotine

Can't understand what I have done
There's nowhere I can run
In God's name and his son
Have the revolution won?

Your life flashes past your altered view
If you die does this mean everything starts new?
Is this the cold-blooded death that you deserve?
To the people all your life you tried do serve

Guillotine
Guillotine
Guillotine

Guillotine
Guillotine
Guillotine
Guillotine
