

Sober

Angel

She said if this ain't it
Tell me why we're falling, falling
Let me leave while crying

I wanna go
Cause' if you can't hear me knocking
I'm blocking other plans
Maybe you're missing something, keep running
But I know you wanna stay

Ooh oooooohhh ooh
Ooh oooooohhh ooh

She said I just can't keep losing on sleep calling, calling
If this ain't keeps
Where would I call home?
Cause' if you can't hear me knocking
I'm blocking all your plans
You dealt me a losing hand and that's the point that I gotta wa lk away

Mind your time till I crossed the line
Wasted time but you could have been mine
Spend your time but you wasn't happy
Wasted time but you could have been mine

I was on a high
Now I realise
Tryna reach the sky was a gifted lie
Somehow I found, on the coming down
When you're sober now and the clouds move out it's over
You're sober

Mind your time till I crossed the line
Wasted time but you could have been mine
Spend your time but you wasn't happy
Wasted time but you could have been mine

Losing everything one by one
One more sip until your love is none
Had everything under the sun
One more sip until the glass is done
