

First Time

Angela Bofill

Dressed to kill
You took me without warning
I'd rehearsed the part a thousand times
But I never knew
How good it could feel

First time
A stab in the dark
And then the second time
We took it to heart
But on the third time
We got the love across

Laughter
Hearts beat like thunder
Oh, I'm shaken up with a love so strong
Right here and now
Is where we belong

Wrap your arms around me, darlin'
Let me feel
What I'd never believe
Could happen to me
...
