

Nothin' But a Teaser

Angela Bofill

Driving in your Maserati
You sure got plenty of style
You're with all the ladies
Your love stretches mile after mile

My heart is not your stepping stone
So I won't let you in to be left alone
Try your lines
But you won't make time with me
'Cause I say

That you're nothin' but a teaser
You love them and leave them
Cold as ice
You're a one-time only pleaser
You leave 'em all crying
Never think twice

You're nothin' but a teaser
You love them and leave them
Cold as ice
You're a one-time only pleaser
You leave 'em all crying

A painter with words
You're a charmer
The girls follow you one by one
But is it still satisfaction
When the one that stands are done

My heart is not your stepping stone
So I won't let you in to be left alone
You can try your lines
But you won't make time with me
'Cause I say

That you're nothin' but a teaser
You love them and leave them
Cold as ice
You're a one-time only pleaser
You leave 'em all crying
And never think twice

You're nothin' but a teaser
You love them and leave them
Cold as ice
You're a one-time only pleaser
You leave 'em all crying

My heart is not your stepping stone
So I won't let you in to be left alone
You can try your lines
But you won't make time with me
'Cause I say

That you're nothin' but a teaser
You love them and leave them

Cold as ice
You're a one-time only pleaser
You leave 'em all crying
And never think twice

You're nothin' but a teaser
You love them and leave them
Cold as ice
You're a one-time only pleaser
You leave 'em all crying
And never think twice

Teaser
Teaser
Nothin' but a teaser

Nothin'
Nothin'
You're nothin' but a teaser
