

You're Always There

Angela Bofill

You're always there
You take away my being lonely
You're always there
That is why I love you only

Rainbows come
But like the sun for me
You're always there

Lost inside a world
No one seems to care
And everyone is looking
For their share

Promises are made
They always seem to fade
But I knew the truth
Would come to me someday

Oh, I saw your face
And in a glance, I knew
The answer to my searching was in you, woah

You're always there (You're always there)
You take away my being lonely
You're always there (You're always there)
That is why I love you only

Rainbows come
But like the sun for me
You're always there

Mother always said:
"Beware of summer love
It steals your heart
And burns you like a flame"
(It steals your heart and burns you like a flame)

But summer passed
And winter came our way
I realized that you were here to stay

Oh-ha, all my life I knew that love would come around
Someone to touch my dreams
And never let me down

You're always there (You're always there)
You take away my being lonely
You're always there (You're always there)
And that is why I love you only

Rainbows may come
But like the sun
You're there
You're there, oo-woah, oo-woah, oo-woah
Oo-woah

You're there to keep me warm
There to keep me strong
Always the two of us together
There's no way we can lose

(You're always there) Oh, woah
No way we can lose
(You're always there)
Oo-woah, oo-woah, oo-woah

Rainbows may come
But like the sun for me
You're always there

(You're always there)
You're always there (You're always there)
(You're always there)

Oh, rainbows may come
But like the sun for me
You're always there

You're always there (You're always there)
Like the sun you're always there
You're always there (You're always there)
Be through eternity

Rainbows may come
But like the sun for me
You're always there

You're always there (You're always there)
Like the wind in trees, there for me
You're always there (You're always there)
Always

Rainbows may come
But like the sun for me
You are always there

Together there
Is no way
That we can lose
