

Too Good to Let You Go

Angela Winbush

Oh ooh oh
Mm yeah
Don't you know your love is too good
Yeah, baby

Too good (mm)
Too good to let you go
That's why I keep holding

Feels so good
To just lay here
I don't want this moment to end, no
And if I could
I'd make time stand still
So you could work it on me
Work your magic on me again

Don't ask me
To set you free
Now that you're apart of me
You're my security
Your love is too good

Too good
(Too good) to let you go
That's why I keep holding on
Too good
Too good to let you go
That's why I keep holding

Nothing else seems to matter
It's your world and I
Revolve around you
Yes I do
I'm not into idle chatter
When I'm working on you
Working on you
Doing all the things I like to do

Don't ask me
To set you free
Now that you're apart of me
You're my security
Your love is too good
Oh yeah

Too good
Too good to let you go, baby
That's why I keep holding on
(Well yeah) too good'
Too good (boy) to let you go

Too good
It's too good, too good baby

Too good, too good to let you go

Don't you know your love is...
Oh yes, I keep holding on
It's too good, baby
Don't you know your love is...

I can't let
I can't let you go (it's too good)
Yeah eh eh
Don't you know your love is...
Too good
Oh yes, too good

Don't you know your love is
Too good, too good
To let you go
Oh woah, oh ooh
(I can't let go) too good
Oh, too good to let you go
Baby, baby
Honey, honey
