

BAD VALENTINE (Piano Diaries)

Angelina Jordan

I stood you up on Valentines
Gave you no reason why
Decided I'd cut you off
Without a tear in my eye

I had to hide when I saw you
On some table for two
I knew I'd never see the sunshine with you
So I spend my night with the moon

I thought I'd told you I would mess up your heart
I warned you right from the start
Roses are red and violets are blue
And you are a fool to try
'Cause I'm a bad valentine
I'm a bad valentine

Just had a feeling it was time
To let the flowers die
Maybe I've gotten so mean to you
'Cause you're always so nice

You even smiled when you were hurt
Sugarcoated my words
When you should have been breathing fire
And show me you're a fighter
Oh, that's how you lost all your worth

I thought I'd told you I would mess up your heart
I warned you right from the start
Roses are red and violets are blue
And you are a fool to try
Cause I'm a bad valentine

Should have known
If you only hear what you wanna hear
You're never gonna know me
Should have known
If you only see what you gonna see

I thought I'd told you I would mess up your heart
I warned you right from the start
Roses are red and violets are blue
And you are a fool to try
Cause I'm a bad valentine

Cause I'm a bad valentine
