

Weakness

It's all my eyes can see
It writhes in the depths
Inside of you and me
It comes in many forms
And one day you will see
That this world's an ugly place
Feeding off the weak

This world's an ugly place
Feeding off the weak
This world's at war with us
Your future's bleak

Show some spine you gutless fuck

As your body's engulfed by a crippling deformity
Your bones creak, your lungs heave

Do you know how weak you fucking look now?
What I would give to take these hands and break your fucking face
Crushed by the weight of your psyche
How easy it is to make your life fucking hell

Run while you can bitch
'Cause I will find you and I will fucking end this Malicious with no heed
Merciless I'll beat you down so don't you fucking try me

This world is at war with all of us

Gutless and afraid
You will break
Gutless waste
Look me in the face
Gutless waste
You will break
Gutless and afraid
You will break
Gutless
