

Suffer Forever

Angelmaker

Children of nothing
I hear your deafened screams
This pain unbearable
It brings you to your knees
I understand this pain
It haunts me just the same
I'm sick of praying for my death
Every day's the fucking same

Suffer forever

Broken we crawl through the pain we call life
Begging to burn bright we're consumed by the night
Now, it's all I see
Visions of pain again
I thought I had escaped your grasp you held around me
I see how blind musti've been to think
I could rid myself of you
Addicted to sting I fall into your arms again

Into oblivion
Time feels short like the setting of a sinking sun
Misery my lover I will never let you go
Destiny is written in your hand, I'll forever hold

Suffer forever
Suffer forever
Suffer forever
Suffer forever

Oh, she calls my name
Our fates entwined to see the end
My pain, her pleasure
Bury me, we'll rot together
Bound to Suffer in agony forever
She drags me deeper, deeper
So low I begin to sink
Deep to existence on the brink
How long til you're swallowed whole
Until you're broken bleeding out
No one gets out now
Cannot escape me now
No one gets out now

Into oblivion
Time feels short like the setting of a sinking sun
Misery my lover
I will never let you go
Destiny is written in your hand, I'll forever hold

Into a sinking sun
Time's run out
I've fallen into oblivion
Misery, my lover
I told you we'd grow old
We can suffer forever doomed to rot forever cold

Into her open arms, my oblivion
Misery, my lover

Suffer forever
