

Blue

Angelo De Augustine

Friend of mine
Just between us I've been moving towards the light
Now you've gone from my eyes
All my life I've been so low
I don't know why

So Blue
Blue
Blue

I turned five
You left mother on her own to raise a child
Thought she would take her life
Than to see you with your woman on the side

So Blue
Blue

My madonna prayed
The child saved her life this way
Now I'm born again everyday

Between my eyes
Is an ocean
You can feel it if you try
Not unlike a howling wind
Like a tempest in the open hearts of men

So Blue
Blue
Blue
