

Fade

Angelo De Augustine

We waited for the day to come
But if the day never shows his face
To you
When you're in the mood
To be lifted off your two feet

Oh it's just a vision
Someone you believe in
You're in conversation
With someone who's slowly fading away

We waited for the outcome
Even though the ebb and flow
Is not
Something you control a lot
To be lifted off your two feet

Oh it's just a vision
Someone you believe in
You're in conversation
With someone who's slowly fading away

Thought the day
Was miles away
Then it came and blew you all away
It's alright
Just don't forget to lock the door
And say goodnight

We waited for the day to come
But if the day never shows his face
To you
When you're in the mood
To be lifted off your two feet

Oh it's just a vision
Someone you believe in
You're in conversation
With someone who's slowly fading away
