

Married Mother

Angelo De Augustine

Go down to
Your mother's room
See what she has around
Men who pass through
Don't give a shit about you
No, they don't give a shit about you

I tried to find
Someone nice
But in the end
They try to sneak in a kiss
At the end of Christmas dinner
I'm sorry but
She's a married mother
A married mother
A married mother

Go down to
Your mother's room
See all your friends around
Pushing you
They don't give a shit about you
No, they don't give a shit about you

I tried to find
Someone nice
But in the end
I married mother
I married mother
I married mother
