

You Needed Love, I Needed You

Angelo De Augustine

I don't have a car
To drive around in
I just have a heart
That I walk about in
I walk around

If I could I'd buy
You a house in Laurel Canyon
Underneath the moon above
In the shade of the mountain
I walk around

Life's been hard and you've lived a few
Did I give too much love to you?
I'm sorry but it's what I had to do
You needed love
I needed you
So I walk around

Back in my hometown
Looking for a silver Honda
But there's too many all around
And I fear I'll never find you
So I walk around

Hoping that one day
I'll see you driving up my street again
On your grandpa's bicycle
With your long hair blowing in the wind
And we'll walk around

Life's been hard and you've lived a few
Did I give too much love to you?
I'm sorry but it's what I had to do
You needed love
I needed you

Life's been hard and you've lived a few
Did I give too much love to you?
I'm sorry but it's what I had to do
You needed love
I needed you
