

You Open To The Idea

Angelo De Augustine

I said I'd wait
Like before
Same as the open door said I'd wait for
This is a shock
It's a lot
To tighten up the lock
When in rare form

Following
You said you'd open when you found something
You open to the idea
The idea

An old friend
Now pretend
Because it had to end in a bad way
They say it's wrong
But it's a start
In taking up the part
For your own sake

Promising
Yourself you'd open when you found something
You open to the idea
The idea
