Angels & Airwaves

Breathe.

Open out the air flow. Taking in the ray of light.

Stretch across the long coast. Falling back to past time.

Sleeping in your wallow. Crying and shivering. Hunting for your sorrow.

Bending down to hold it. Shiver like you're gonna try. Scatters like it a comets.

Killing off your habit.

Take me as your servant. Take me as your weapon. Take me as your courage.

Take me as your servant. Take me as your servant.

Take me as your servant.
