Overload

Angels & Airwaves

Eyes
Wait
Go
Lights
Don't Haunt
Through
The night

Everybody's coming to be shown
(We see it in your eyes)
Just like that feeling when you run
(We see it every time)
Come close find someone that you know
(We all enjoy the pain)
This spark is burning up the firehouse again, again

Your lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
Your lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie, lie

When you see it, do you overload?
Do you feel like you should close your eyes?
Everybody to the great unknown
Feet first, jumping in front of the line
When you see it, do you overload?
Do you feel like you should bide your time
Every minute is an episode
A-typical, dramatic end to the night

Everybody is waiting on the rain
(We see it in your eyes)
Held down and high above the fold
(We see it every time)
Come close, find anyone you can
(We all enjoy the pain)
This spark will burn right down the fucking house again, again

When you see it, do you overload?
Do you feel like you should close your eyes?
Everybody to the great unknown
Feet first, jumping in front of the line
When you see it, do you overload?
Do you feel like you should bide your time
Every minute is an episode
