

The Wolfpack #2

Angels & Airwaves

You tear me up, so silent and deadly, oh
It's violent and do I run, do I run
Do I run, do I run
Fall in time, I'm feeling your skin on mine
You shout and you bury me narrowly
Carry me, carry me
The words are lone, the echo and kill them, go
A ghost in my stereo, stereo
In my head around you go

Hearts play lost and found
Drag them up and down

It's alright, I'm okay
So sorry, I've been played
I know I don't matter
Already moved on I think I feel better
But if you care, I'll never say never
It's on me, it's only
A heart burn, a heart bleed
It's a vicious man killer
But if you care, I know I'll find better
But then again, I'll never say never

Come with me, destroy me and care for me
You're lying to me, you're killing me, killing me
Killing me, killing me
Hands and ropes, far off the edge we go
I'm falling and do I run, do I run
Do I run, do I run
Nicely like all starry and blurry eyes
Just sorry I'm stuttering, suffering
Suffering, suffering

Hearts play lost and found
Drag them up and down

It's alright, I'm okay
So sorry, I've been played
I know I don't matter
Already moved on I think I feel better
But if you care, I'll never say never
It's on me, it's only
A heart burn, a heart bleed
It's a vicious man killer
But if you care, I know I'll find better
But then again, I'll never say never
