

Empire of Shame

Angelus Apatrida

First they came for the gold and riches
In the name of the great empire
They bought us grief, death and slavery
Supressing all resistance

They came form overseas
Sailing on dragon heads and horses of steel
They came with guns ablazing
Messengers of the empire of shame

Then they came for the women and children
With no one else to fight them back
They raped and killed our sacred treasure
Annihilaiting every tribe

They came form overseas
Sailing on dragon heads and horses of steel
They came with guns ablazing
Messengers of the empire of shame

Empire of shame
There was no glory or honor in the carnage
A bloodshed game
Step on a strange land, by fire and sword
Empire os shame
In search of fortune and power for the master
The tribes aflame
Dammed be the empire on wich the sun never sets

And then they came with burning crosses
They said it was to civilize
Erasing all our ancient culture
Indigenous genocide

They came form overseas
Sailing on dragon heads and horses of steel
They came with guns ablazing
