

To Whom It May Concern

Angelus Apatrida

In this void where hope is hard to find
Alone I sit within my mind
I lay surrounded by despair
Lost without a trace
I sit in a cold and empty place
Where I can hide myself away

Here I stand embraced by darkness
Unknown faces all around the place
The silent echoes bring their pain
It reminds me all my struggle was in vain
The lurking shadows in this room
Chasing demons blinded by disgrace
Beneath the shadow of the gallows
Motionless, I firmly hold the rope

Don't let me go / I'm not ready
What would it take to keep me here with you?
Don't let me go / Hold me tight
I don't wanna go, don't let my memory fade away

Trembling fingers scratch the surface
Of an endless tomb of twisted thoughts
The wounds that bleed my broken heart
A constant fear that tears this world apart

Don't let me go / I'm not ready
What would it take to keep me here with you?
Don't let me go / Hold me tight
I don't wanna go, don't let my memory fade away

Don't let me go... guide my way through this valley
The fading light, my soul's so lost
Don't let me fall... this road is dark and dreary
The shadows creep and crawl behind me

Reaching out for a helping hand
But no one seems to understand
In this vast and distant space
Soundless noises unbearably loud
A lonely figure in the crowd
Would you ever recognize my face?

Got a time bomb ticking in my head
Erased by time and wasted years
Would you ever say my name?
Then I wish I could be someone else
And I know it's okay to feel this way
The thing is I'm scared as fuck
So, I can't blame anyone

Suffocating grasp of madness
Let the devil come and take his toll
Whispering sins are due to pay
Left behind my fate down in a hole
A black abyss behind my shoulders
Carrying this burden through the eternal cold

Trembling fingers scratch the surface
I write this letter to whom it may concern

Don't let me go / I'm not ready
What would it take to keep me here with you?
Don't let me go / Hold me tight
I don't wanna go, don't let my memory fade away
