

Diabolic Dice

Angerfist

When you roll the stones the demons come to haunt ya
Diabolic dice coming straight from the master

Straight from the master

The maker, the taker, the Hardcore gangster

Blood on the streets while we blast a disaster
The maker, the taker, the Hardcore gangster
When you roll the stones the demons come to haunt ya

The demons come to haunt ya

When hope becomes despair
As the darkness descends
The masked mad man is back
Watch as he unlocks the demonic trap
Seize the stones and roll
The diabolic dice

Here comes the sound with the rage and the rampage
Rebel to the grave going hard through your brainwaves
When you roll the stones the demons come to haunt ya
Diabolic dice coming straight from the master

Diabolic dice coming straight from the master [2x]
