

The Desecrated

Angerfist

There will be no more light
No more faith or salvation

Supreme destruction (2X)

Our glorious generation of destruction

Mankind is lost
Forced to embrace all that is evil and corrupt
There will be no more light
No more faith or salvation
All that will be left is unreal chaos and supreme destruction
Raw and filthy demonic attacks
Neverending pain and suffering
Dreams fade into nightmares
Endless cries for help will blacken the night
Rain of blood will fall from the skies
The smell of death suffocates the wandering slaves of life
Hope is nothing but a distant and vicious memory

All that was once good and pure is dead
There will be no more light
Mankind is lost

All that will be left is unreal chaos and supreme destruction

Supreme destruction

Demonic attacks

Our glorious generation
Destruction

Mankind is dead

Our glorious generation of destruction
Neverending pain and suffering
Destruction
Endless cries for help will blacken the night
Destruction (4X)
