

A Change

Anggun

First time I saw your face
Some look can't be replaced
First time I felt your embrace
I just knew I was in trouble
First time I played the fire
Surrendered to desire
First time I made but lie
Well it felt so right
Didn't know you wanna change I fell into
Here in like a taboo
Didn't know I fall a change I need it too
A strong as a voodoo
Didn't know that he could change my point of view
He got me thru and thru
Didn't know you rearrange my world to new
There's only change, there's only change
First time I felt afraid
For this I have prayed
First time that I have betrayed
Never left without my honor
First time I realized
You've opened up my eyes
First time I hold inside
You brought me to life
Didn't know you wanna change I fell into
Here in like a taboo
Didn't know I fall a change I need it too
A strong as a voodoo
Didn't know that he could change my point of view
He got me thru and thru
Didn't know you rearrange my world to new
There's only change, there's only change
Didn't know you wanna change I fell into
Here in like a taboo
Didn't know I fall a change I need it too
A strong as a voodoo
Didn't know that he could change my point of view
He got me thru and thru
Didn't know you rearrange my world to new
There's only change, there's only change
