

A Stranger

Anggun

Looking in the mirror
I'm a stranger
To this land and air
Belong to elsewhere

Years have passed me by
And harder to deny
What's missing from my eyes

The path I'm drawn into
Behind this ocean blue
Made my heart torn in two

Looking in the mirror I'm a stranger
To this land and air belong to elsewhere
Feeling more than ever like a stranger
Unknown to this land this heart in my hands

With a dream to fulfill
I will not stop until
It's alive and it's real

And running through my veins
A love that heals the pain
Forever on the mend

Looking in the mirror I'm a stranger
To this land and air belong to elsewhere
Feeling more than ever like a stranger
Unknown to this land this heart in my hands

Looking in the mirror I'm a stranger
To this land and air belong to elsewhere
Feeling more than ever like a stranger
Unknown to this land this heart in my hands

To this land and air belong to elsewhere
Belong to elsewhere
