Pray

Anggun

Pray for life, pray for love
Pray for life and for tomorrow
I lay here trapped
Behind my walls
If you won't hear my calls
I feel so small

Hands lay in my head
Knocked me wait awake
I really feel so small

Don't wanna cry, don't wanna lie
I hope for every reason let my wishes fly

I lay here trapped
I'm in so deep
Only have this heart
My two feet

My sanity, is all I wanna keep
My mind to free is all I need

I want it's sending out a piece of mine
All for the nights I only make the world lives
Angel jumps through miracle right down away
The only thing that we can do is pray
