

Backup Plan

Angie Stone

Every woman's got a backup plan
If you ever start acting crazy you know
If there's a maybe
Every woman's got a backup plan
You need to know
She's in control
Every woman needs a backup plan

Now if you let me girlfriend I gone keep it real with you
There ain't no difference in the men that we're attracted to
No job, no house, no car and an attitude
Well they break us down and then in fact they put that thing on you
Act like a woman think like a man
Please understand

Every woman's got a backup plan
If you ever start acting crazy you know
If there's a maybe
Every woman's got a backup plan
You need to know
She's in control
Every woman needs a backup man

Pay close attention intuition they never would steal
You in the wrong direction take off those imperfections Change up your game don't get caught outside in the rain
You can't keep doing the same expecting it to change
Act like a woman think like a man
Please understand

Every woman's got a backup plan
If you ever start acting crazy you know
If there's a maybe
Every woman's got a backup plan
You need to know
She's in control
Every woman needs a backup man
Get yourself a backup man
Every woman got a backup plan

Because of you I've learned
Love you sometimes burns
Now that I understand it baby
I got a backup plan
Ignore brings more that's why you knocking at my door
You taught me well that's why I won't pick up my cell
Don't lose your head baby because my phone was dead
Ain't that the same thing you said?

Every woman's got a backup plan
If you ever start acting crazy you know
If there's a maybe
Every woman's got a backup plan

You need to know
She's in control
Every woman needs a backup plan x3
Every woman's got a backup plan
Every woman needs a backup man
