

Didn't Break Me

Angie Stone

Can you believe him, after all I done for him?
I could have slapped her, anyway
I guess, it comes a point when you just gotta let him know
You ain't gonna take it

Hey mister loverman (is that you)
Sunlight beat you home again (that's true)
Now run back out and catch a ride (cause you lose)
Cause you're not staying here tonight (no boo)
I told that boy right here

So I let you have a little fun (uh huh)
And then get you with a good one (flip back, bang, bang)
You're not a man, you're a little boy
And see I'm not a play toy (baby)
All this precious loving, boy what you got coming
Don't show enough, have you missing me, yeah

Boy you left my heart, black and blue
But you still, didn't break me, didn't break me
I'll be just enough for someone new
I was just too much for you

(Didn't break me, didn't break me)
(Too much)
(Didn't break me, didn't break me)
(Too much)

Damn right am happy now (show now)
You can go spread your love all over town (good love)
Cause boy you're stuck out with me
Now you're out there blowing in the breeze (without me)
I told that boy right here

[Chorus 1:]

So I let you have a little fun (uh huh)
And then get you with a good one (flip back, bang, bang)
You're not a man, you're a little boy
And see I'm not a play toy (baby)
All this precious loving, boy what you got coming
Don't show enough, have you missing me, yeah

Boy you left my heart, black and blue
But you still, didn't break me, didn't break me
I'll be just enough for someone new
I was just too much for you

Boy you left my heart, black and blue
But you still, didn't break me, didn't break me
I'll be just enough for someone new
I was just too much for you

Bye the time you can see
The one you love would be the one that you need
You see my love is gone away
I'm saying bye, bye
I won't cry, anymore

Boy you left my heart, black and blue
But you still, didn't break me, didn't break me
I'll be just enough for someone new
I was just too much for you

Boy you left my heart, black and blue
But you still, didn't break me, didn't break me
I'll be just enough for someone new
I was just too much for you
