

Different World

Angry Samoans

Hey now girl
Leave me alone
You broke my heart
So get off the phone

Five years ago
I was in love with you
Now the past we shared
Girl I have been ruined

I can't come back
So forgive me girl
You must accept the fact
I'm in a different world

No one knows where I'm hanging 'round
I wear the stamp of the lost and found

No no no!

And now I'm far away
My lines are blurred
No one can reach me here
I'm in a different world

A different world
