

Electrocution

Angry Samoans

You didn't think that it was wrong
And now you have to say so long
Since then I count the days
The moments far away
You're gone

You wouldn't compromise your ways
And now they've taken you away
No regrets, you didn't care
You didn't even say your prayers
So long

Electrocution girl, oh yeah (oh yeah yeah)
Electrocution girl, oh yeah (oh yeah yeah)
I'm talking the love of friends
The human bond that never ends

And now it's gone, it's gone away for good, oh no!

I saw the love that was in your eyes
And now it's gone, I don't know why
I never ever could realize
I should've lived with other guys, oh no!
I should've lived with other guys
You're gone

Electrocution was the price
They made you pay for your mistake
The years go passing by
And now you're gonna die
So long!
