

Amazons Of Caledonia

ANGUS McSIX

Hailing from the highlands, far into the west
Fearless warrior maids, trained to be the best of the best
Led by Thalestris, queen of amazons
Shooting mighty evil with her laser guns

Now arming for war
Ready to soar high up on eagles
Joining the brave force of light
To fight once more!

Riding over the Rainbow
Higher than the furthest star
A blazing fire in the darkest night
Amazons of Caledonia

A battle hardened myriad has heard the call
There is no surrender, it is to prevail or fall
Arrows with nukes and goblin target search
Faster than the wind they fly, let's start the purge

Daughters of might, rise and unite!
Fury is fueled and courage
Shining bright like the sun
Combat is on tonight

Riding over the Rainbow
Higher than the furthest star
A blazing fire in the darkest night
Amazons of Caledonia

Riding over the Rainbow
Higher than the furthest star
A blazing fire in the darkest night
Amazons of Caledonia

Riding over the Rainbow
Higher than the furthest star
A blazing fire in the darkest night
Amazons of Caledonia
