

Eternal Warrior

ANGUS McSIX

I have died to save the galaxy
In the Realm of Martyrs now the people, of the world calling for me

Death conquered, through fire I have gone
But visions of a future past burned in me, and will burn forever on

That's why I will return
Because I am
Eternal Warrior
With a heart as pure as steel
Eternal Warrior
Fight for all that's real
Eternal Warrior
Claim forever victory
Eternal Warrior
In me!

And I ride to the end of these vast lands
Across a mighty canyon
A hunchbacked manikin waving his hands

He's shouting to search for astral key
To open up a portal deep in hell
To alter space and history

Let justice be my guide
I am starting on my way
With glory I'm allied because I am
Because I am!

Eternal Warrior
With a heart as pure as steel
Eternal Warrior
Fight for all that's real
Eternal Warrior
Claim forever victory
Eternal Warrior
In me!

Soon now I will return, because I am..
(Because I am!)

Eternal Warrior
With a heart as pure as steel
Eternal Warrior
Fight for all that's real
Eternal Warrior
Claim forever victory
Eternal Warrior
In me!
