

Even More

Ani DiFranco

Long after the seal is broken
I've seen you stumble, I've seen you choke
And I think I love you even more

After someone went sat on my rose coloured glasses
I think I love ya even more
Ain't nothing changed about my passion
Now that we've both got tired asses
I think I love you even more

Oh boy come here, bring me back
To when we were slipping through the cracks
I think I love ya even more

Even more, Even more
Even, even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even, even more, Even more

Sails sleek backwards, hellbent
From the baby to the placenta
(I think I love ya) Even more
Retroactive DNA, what's attractive?
Who can say
I think I love ya even more
Starlight eyes and if you
Dry your eyes, they were blue
I think I love ya even more

Oh boy come here, bring me back
To when we were slipping through the cracks
I think I love ya even more

Even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even, even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even, even more, Even more

Long after the seal is broken
You see me stumble, you see me choke
And do you think you could love me even more?
After someone went sat on your rose coloured glasses
You think you could love me even more?
Can you hold on to your passion
Now that we've both got tired asses
You think you could love me even more?

Yeah boy come here, bring me back
To when we were slipping through the cracks
I think I love ya even more

Even more, Even more
Even, even more, Even more

Even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
Even more, Even more
