Nicotine

Ani DiFranco

I hate you sometimes But I love to be your queen You are my muse Got me smoking nicotine

I watch you sometimes From oh so far away But I can't forget you Or anything you said

You sang that song in my ear And it tickled those tiny hairs

Love is a puzzle Some pieces they adjoin It's not like that with us But I keep flipping that coin

I watch you sometimes From oh so far away But I can't forget you Or anything you say

You sang that song in my ear And it tickled those tiny hairs
