

O My My

Ani DiFranco

Your body
forshortened below your shoulders your face so close it's out of focus way down the hallway comes the sound of your shoes this is when I think about when I think about you

If we let our love off of it's leash do you fear like I fear how fierce it would be?

Your headlights sweepin'
across my ceiling
the breath of my smile
the depth of my feeling way down in my dark light of shadows your life with sharp things that glow this is what I think about when I think about you

do you fear like I fear how fierce it would be?

Oh my my
oh my my
oh my my
oh my my
oh my my
oh my my
oh my my
