Ani Lorak (Ани Лорак)

So good

You're such a pretty little thing
I don't know why you wanna be
Wasting all your time being so serious
You read, you watch, you think too much
When will you learn to lighten up
Don't you know that you're starting to worry us

These are the words a girl
Hears all her life
Taught how to keep herself
Locked inside
Put on a happy face and

Smile and be glamorous
Hide your pain and anger away
Save your rainy weather for another day
Smile, such a pretty girl
Smile, you can have the world
Hide your pain and anger away
Won't you put a smile on that pretty face?

Bad mood, bad day, no diplomat
No passion for a game like that
Maybe I'll just let myself be down
So sorry, oops, almost forgot
The prime directive that I'm not
Not allowed to spoil things with a frown

Look at how good she is
Sweet little thing
If only she weren't so
Serious

These are the words a girl
Hears all her life
Taught how to keep herself (Girl, how to keep herself)
Locked inside (Locked inside)

Smile and be glamorous
Hide your pain and anger away
Save your rainy weather for another day
Smile, such a pretty girl
Smile, you can have the world
Hide your pain and anger away
Won't you put a smile on that pretty face?
