

About It

Anilyst

Homie, you's a poodle to a great dane, a shooter that won't take aim
I'm brutal, make your brains hang, dude'll make the game change
Loser you's a straight lame, claiming you can take pain
I knew a dude who gang banged, and shoot up through his main veins
Roll the reefer pass it, blow this beat to ashes
My flow will reach the masses, my poetry is massive Loyalty's an asset but most these people lack it
They'll burn you deep as acid, turn your cheek they'll slap it
Trust none, cause all they want are your trust funds
Love runs for only those who are loved ones
But fuck it, I came to fucking close just to run from These fucking bums who do nothing more than just run tongues
I'm busy making my fucking dough by the lump sums
This ain't for diggy and jojo when I say run-son,
(I-I-I) I came in the club drunk, hoping on making the club jump
I'm making the snub dump, look at the way that you chumps slump!

Living my life I'm, sky high
Purple burning blurring out my eye sight
Bright lights, night life
Bitch I'm about it cause I'm (cause I'm a product of the...)
Bright lights, night life...
Bright lights, night life...

Quick as fuck they can't catch it, mista fuckin' fantastic
Rap classics give the game my all, you all just half ass it
Hoodie up with black glasses, leave a chump with fat gashes
Hit the club to grab asses, bitches love to act ratchet
Plenty hoes, many models watch this Henny make me wobble
Throwin' empty Remmy bottles, while I load this semi-auto
Get this change, it's my motto, spit these flames, let them follow
Tell your dame get ready to swallow, like her name was Demi Lovato
Crazy, the way he acts, spazzin like a maniac
Baddest with the way he raps, faggot make me take it back
Test my patience make me snap, let them hate I'll pay them back
Abuse you have you fade to black, I'll use a bat to break your back
Hottest flow, rhyme from the mind and soul, bipolar hot and cold, eyes on th at pot of gold
Let him preach, never seemed to sweat a beef
Let him speak, cause I'm getting further than they'll ever reach

Living my life I'm, sky high
Purple burning blurring out my eye sight
Bright lights, night life
Bitch I'm about it cause I'm (cause I'm a product of the...)
Bright lights, night life...
Bright lights, night life...

I'm forever screaming fuck a fake, I'll make a sucka suffocate
Take a chump and snuff his face, make him run and jump the gates
Embrace the love, fuck the hate, the greatest one to bump the bass
I know the flow's got what it takes but I'm overlooked and I'm underpaid
Persistent with the shit I'm certain, that my shit will hit the circuit
Kill a verse the kid'll murk it, listen close don't misinterpret
Bitch I'm swerving while my chick is liquor slurpin'
Swisher burnin', ain't no better picture call it picture perfect

Living my life I'm, sky high
Purple burning blurring out my eye sight
Bright lights, night life
