Coronavirus

Anilyst

Fuck... you know, this is like a movie. This shit don't even feel real to be honest with you. Fuck... my beard's all long, my eyebrows are all bushy, I lost all the progress I made in the gym... FUCK!

I sorta seem, lonely cause corona's got me stuck in quarantine
So now I'm hoarding things
The more I think the more I need to pour a drink
I'm bored without my girl I'm even having horny dreams
I'm stocking groceries, I'm shopping for febreze
I'm paranoid every time I hear a cough or sneeze
Getting lots of sleep so we been feeling all fatigued
I cannot believe that we've been in this spot for weeks
They say this virus came across the globe from Asia
Now its got me feeling like my life is so in danger
My doors are locked and closed I must avoid neighbors
Cause they've been knocking on my door for toilet paper
The gym is closed, the only place to motivates us
I used to have some goals to be as swoll as Schwarzenegger
The NBA is postponed for later, not to mention this year we lost the dopest Laker (Kobe)
My face mask I'll never take off, and ain't it sad the way that half the fucking nation just got laid off
This shit is killing us like Adolf
We're dealing with such a great loss
Plus they say two trillion is what it may cost
To kick the economy back
Cause we don't know how to relax
Fuck it I gotta be strapped
In case of a robbery act I'ma know how to react
I think its obvious that, I need some lottery cash
Aside from the facts I'm dropping these quality tracks I never will copy you cats
COVID-19 that's all I see when I go to my screen
I know its sort of extreme
I wanna go and just scream, I know you know what I mean
Pray that the Lord intervenes
Wishing this all was a dream
Maybe we should get together with all of our weapons an start a regime
Like a militia that's moshing
This will be never forgotten
People be yelling out caution
Everybody's getting sick of this toxin
I think the devil is watching
I think we're all out of options
I just developed a cough but I don't wanna end up in a coffin
