

(And they're like Lyst, and I'm like what up?)
(They're like, why don't you syllable slide for us?)
(I'm like aright)

Ess Ess Tew I'm the best kept truth
Treating competition like they was my breakfast food
Who you tryin' bruh my dudes will snatch ya necklace loose
Looking fly enough that you would guess a jet just flew
I can leave you breathless like wet sex do
From the west but I'm also digging Texas too
Betcha never heard no sentences said so smooth
Now my head has grown immense as my ex-girl's boobs
Compliment her cup size try and check the up side
Because I, still got some love for shawty why should I lie
Light one up for tough times, a diamond in the rough, I'm Hotter than the sauna in the summers up in July
Insane as an asylum hear the sirens when I come by
The rage inside my mind is like a lion's in my blood line
Plus I'm, staying high it's why my eyes are blood-eyed
When I die, I'm gonna leave a mark that can't be denied
Basically just try to see the way I speak with constant ease
And put your hate aside and fucking place me as the nominee
To be one of the livest fucking rhymers that will ever breathe
Reciting shit that's timeless on the mic is why I never sleep
Finna wreck so check it
In a millisecond I could kill a record plus I got the skills to resurrect it
Who the fuck you think can really step to really test my method?
I'm delivering the realest message tell them bitches test it!
That's a take over, we don't have to stay sober
Leave my fans amazed when I rap as fast as Daytona
Louder than the sounds of a thousand and eight motors
I'm a falcon looking down on you clowns that'll stay lower
They heard about the truth and the way I keep on pushing
Burning down the booth from the flames I keep on cooking
Pouring out the goose tell your dame to bring the kush in
Your girl is just as loose as the change beneath the cushion
She's a gaudy broad parties like it's Mardi Gras
Shawty rowdy ya'll, dancing in her party bra
And tonight she be a star she needs a body guard
She's got the skin that's soft enough to make you awfully hard
She came prepared tonight wearing white skinnys
It's like paradise to me to see a pair of nice titties
Gotta scary mind with the way I'm staying highly witty
I'm that parasite that tears inside to paralyze your kidneys
Beastin' on these folks, I'll speak it sorta slow
So the words will stick as permanent as bleach poured over clothes
These freaks all wanna know can I meet them on the low
Am I perverted or a creep the way I keep adoring hoes
(Hey Ice replay that for 'em real quick dawg)
(Just in case they didn't get the word play, you know I mean)
Beastin' on these folks, I'll speak it sorta slow
So the words will stick as permanent as bleach poured over clothes
These freaks all wanna know can I meet them on the low
Am I perverted or a creep the way I keep adoring hoes
(It's your boy Anilyst)
