

Knock That Down

Anilyst

I'm in certain need of luck
I can't rest, I've got the urge to keep it up
Cause death is where you sleep is, permanently stuck
For eternity so work, you deserve to see some bucks
And they, keep asking they ain't heard of me in months
Working G, burning trees, earning me some funds
Once you hear this you'll be certain that he's nuts
Him and lyrics go together like surgeries and cuts
Or like a third degree murder scene with guts
A burglary and cuffs, you'z a herpe to a slut
Bitches be dirty and ain't worthy of a fuck
So I'll let em either slurp me or just jerk me till I nut
Good brain, she in college tryna strip
She should get a scholarship for swallowing a dick
I'm tryna maximize the dollars that I get Till I stack so many hundreds in my wallet that it splits

Try to top it, get knocked back down
They wanna stop it, they not that down
Try to top it, get knocked back down
They wanna stop it, they not that down

If they try and top it, they'll be getting knocked back down, knocked back d own, knocked back down
Many wanna stop it, but they know they're not that down, not that down, not that down

It's like my days became nights
So much anger but they say to play nice
Cause just to make a pay, you've gotta pay a great price
And make stress become another part of day to day life
So you get ruder with your tendencies
Become ruthless as can ever be, soon to see a felony
It's crazy how some dudes would rather lose and leave integrity
When really they can choose to be the truth and leave a legacy
Be your own boss, free your own thoughts
A leader with these lyrics cause there's really no flaws
Spending sprees but I get my weed at no cost
Motherfuckers try to limit me but we are so large
Rhyming absurd, try finding a church
Cause I'll strike you with words
Call it lightening in a verse
And it's frightening how this motherfucker's fighting till the dirt
Like a viking even though he's wearing Nike on his shirt

Try to top it, get knocked back down
They wanna stop it, they not that down
Try to top it, get knocked back down
They wanna stop it, they not that down

Try to top it, get knocked back down
They wanna stop it, they not that down
Try to top it, get knocked back down
They wanna stop it, they not that down

If they try and top it, they'll be getting knocked back down, knocked back d own, knocked back down

Many wanna stop it, but they know they're not that down, not that down, not that down

If they try and top it, they'll be getting knocked back down, knocked back down, knocked back down

Many wanna stop it, but they know they're not that down, not that down, not that down

Scheming up the night away

An animal, the type of beast that never hibernates

That's why I always seem as heated as a microwave

Wide awake yet I'm always dreaming tryna find a way

(I) bet you bastards ain't as real

Or skilled to where you're ill enough, you have to take these pills

And the way I feel is like a hamster in a wheel

Cause I'm running on the daily, but my chances stay as still

You wish you had the balls to see him

Or to handle shit as bossy when your job is emceeing

I'll be going hard until cash is all I'm seeing

And my name is large enough that it can pack a Colosseum

Motherfucker...

If they try and top it, they'll be getting knocked back down, knocked back down, knocked back down

Many wanna stop it, but they know they're not that down, not that down, not that down

If they try and top it, they'll be getting knocked back down, knocked back down, knocked back down

Many wanna stop it, but they know they're not that down, not that down, not that down
