

Knows Me

Anilyst

I don't think she knows me, I don't think she knows me
She be getting nosey so she can tell her friends that she knows
me
No sleep, we would get no sleep, every night creeping on the lo w-key
Now she's telling everyone she knows me

I don't think she knows me, I don't think she knows me
She be getting nosey so she can tell her friends that she knows
me
Low-key, we were so low-key, every night we would get no sleep
Now she's telling everyone she knows me

Started as a homie, but then she had to go say hold me Shorty started growing on me slowly, I told her that I'm sick o f being lonely
Cause all these other women been phony
So, I told her put it on me
She rode it like a pony Now she started feeling like she knows me, but

She be getting nosey so she can tell her friends that she knows
me
No sleep, we would get no sleep, every night creeping on the lo
w-key
Now she's telling everyone she knows me

She be getting nosey so she can tell her friends that she knows
me
Low-key, we were so low-key, every night we would get no sleep
Now she's telling everyone she knows me

Shorty had approached me, when I was just chillin' in the OC Told me that she's different then these hoes be, said she's int erested to get to know me
She said listen closely, we can take it slowly
We can set our souls free, then she told me this is what we bot h need, but

She be getting nosey so she can tell her friends that she knows
me
No sleep, we would get no sleep, every night creeping on the lo
w-key
Now she's telling everyone she knows me

I don't think she knows me, I don't think she knows me
She be getting nosey so she can tell her friends that she knows
me
Low-key, we were so low-key, every night we would get no sleep
Now she's telling everyone she knows me
