

Prophecy

Anilyst

Don't try to tear me down
I'ma rise up, grab the crown, you'll see
My prophecy
Just walk tall, head down
Grinding till I grab the crown you'll see, my prophecy

Self made never dealt favors
No one helped me to propel major
Well paid getting wealth paper
Nowadays I'm a celebrator
Smoke an L a day just to elevate us
Getting hella faded by the elevators
I'm an LA living hell raiser
(I'm an LA living hell raiser)
Filled cups, I'm chilling
Lifted up in this building
It's building up so I'm spilling
All these feelings bruh that I'm feeling, ah
Life's made in a way to test you
Try to take it and make it special
This is my game I'ma raise the level
I ain't talking no bass or treble
Told ya'll lames I'd stay rebel
Got a goal I'm chasing that I pray I get too
Stay motivated by my baby nephew
(Stay motivated by my baby nephew)
That's why my grind is on non stop
Finna strive in life till I'm on top
So I write at night till every lines hot
Jot thoughts, but don't talk a lot
Learned from all of my mistakes
Been bit by many snakes
It benefited me in plenty ways
Cause now I separate away from fakes
Better late than never A
Meditate for the better days
And I'm made for the center stage
Let's celebrate, we forever great

Don't try to tear me down
I'ma rise up, grab the crown, you'll see
My prophecy
Just walk tall, head down
Grinding till I grab the crown you'll see, my prophecy

No weakness, I'm a tough dude
Deep trips from mushrooms
Think big is what you must do
Cause dreams really do come true
Preaching what I love too
Teaching you to love you
Keep winning you cannot lose
Got a beast in my that's on the loose
Living life like the matrix
Shit is sci-fi for ages
The shit that I write amazes
Dog I'm penning my life in pages

Then I speak and preach it on tempo
See my secrets' so simple
Keep flowing like the wind blows
Have big dreams with bigger goals
Then work hard on promoting
Till the whole globe starts quoting
My words like I'm Joe Rogan
I swear my mind is so open
Syrup nights till I'm toasted
I feel my lifes in slow motion
They hear my type is quite focused
Got a serious fight with psychosis
My therapy is when the beat kicks
Cause apparently I'm a beast with
This poetry it's no secret
Flowing free as a sea ship
Lowkey leave you speechless
So deep this is steepness
Tough G, no weakness
I just needed to release this

Don't try to tear me down
I'ma rise up, grab the crown, you'll see
My prophecy
Just walk tall, head down
Grinding till I grab the crown you'll see, my prophecy
