

Take Away

Anilyst

I, grind, get em with lines
That can make lyrical guys go scribble they rhymes
Make them feel a little bit illiterate like
They ain't never read a letter or a book in they life

Give me credit for doing this I'm pursuing what I like Take a second to look up to what I'm doing on the mic
You better just book it because there's two of us tonight
Shining so bright that this dudes out of sight

My mood isn't right like who should I fight?
Shit is like a sci-fi movie cause I Might get you woozy when choosing my knives
To slice up a groupie like mike, sike

Loving the women I've always been about bitches Turn around to my sound tell her bounce to this
An her ass in that outfit is looking mountainous
How can this motha fucka not rip up out of it?

Back killing them with fast adrenaline
Cats ill enough to crack a skeleton
Mass developing all these other cats irrelevant
Now my foot is on the gas I'm peddling
Accurate with the rap I don't lack development Track killer that'll smack up a cat for telling
I'm clapping them in the back with a mack 11
Then laughing until it happens to crack your melon
Boast like a shovanist
Of course I been getting hoes cause I'm known for this Scorching them with the flow never forcing it
All my metaphors are going through metamorphosis
On tour making more than your mortgages
Working to make a fucking fortune I'm fortunate
Want war with the kid? better forfeit
Before all your kids finna live in an orphanage

They can't take away my soul, hey there hater play your role, hate the game don't hate the pro, they just hating cause they know, they can't take away m y soul

Pray today I'll pray tomorrow, wake up every day and know, they can't take a way my soul

A lot of people dissed, wanted me to miss
But I keep on winning got the wannabes all pissed Probably cause they try to be as hot as me with this
But they'll never be I'm sorry you do not even exist
Don't bother me while I'm grinding it's gotta be legit
We party get rowdy as if the lottery was hit Cocky he constantly is Partly because they be honestly copying Lyst
An they hate that he's got you all jumping to this

One thing I know is I love me a risk
And that's something I just can't control or resist
Hold up if you really wanna go I'll leave you stiff Stimulate my brain with a little bit of grey goose
Innovative in a way that you cannot relate too
Imitate us but you'll never be the one to make moves
Winning and we be the ones that you can never say lose Son is so accurate, I'm becoming immaculate
Show up in a lac' with a couple of actresses Booty's looking phat enough to cover the masses with Come to my mattresses
Tell me brotha can you imagine this?
I attack every track so hazardous
So I had to give you something to slap you with I'm running this you running in back of us
I'm in disgust, just cause you ain't did enough to even discuss business Kick dust if you thinking you can diss us, switch up ya flow, why? cause it been suck
Plus, I'm the man that ya chick loves, plus I got a little thang with your s ister
Bang bang not a clip but a dick bruh, bang bang not a clip but a dick bruh
